

NCLF Picnic is on the Web

This years picnic was well attended and we were visited by Ernie Stadvec and his camera man who produced a 45 minute interview of some of the club members.

Check it out at <http://www.erniestv.com/> and look for the "Northcoast Lite Flyers" video link.

Remember—Club Meetings are at Big “T”’s

Remember that we are now holding our club meetings at Big T's in Streetsboro since the Comfort Café closed up a couple of months ago. The food is great quality and the service is warm and friendly. Show up about 6:00 to share a meal with fellow members. Bring pictures, stories, anything aviation related to share with the group. It's always a good time.

See the club website for a map and the menu, (bottom of the home page)

John Doyle and Bob Essell go Hunting For Food!

On Saturday Aug 27, Bob Essell and John Doyle set out on a quest to check out new sources of nourishment on or near airports.

For breakfast Bob and John stopped at Elliot's Landing (074) near Mount Victory, Ohio, about 50 miles and 250° from Mansfield. Runway 33/15 is 2700' of grass adjoining a truck stop. Turns out that Elliot's is a traditional Saturday morning gathering spot for pilots in the area. Made new friends and contacts. After a fine (skipping the $7.95 buffet) breakfast, Bob and John pulled the Rans right up to the gas pump and topped off the tanks with 93 octane (ethanol presumed).

After stops at Barber and Sunset Strip, Bob and John dropped in at an uncharted strip affectionately known as K-Tim (after the owner). Runway 9/27 is 2000' of well maintained sod located just east of the now closed Miller Airport (4G3). The coordinates are N 40° 59.40' and W 81° 01.30'. Parking the Rans at the east end, between the pond and the driveway, Bob and John walked across the street to the Island Creek Grille for a good, straightforward, reasonably priced, lunch. The grill is open Wed-Fri 11am to late, Sat 8am to late, and Sunday 8am to 6pm. K-Tim is owned by friendly Tim, who flies a Champ.
