Ed's Steak and Egg Fly-In

Some fly-in's are great to see planes. Some fly-in's are great for the food. Ed's Steak and Egg Fly-In is known for both!

Ed Ushanko hosts a fly-in that brings many people from Ultralights to light-sports to GA pilots and their traveling companions together to share food and friendship. All come to see the variety of aircraft that show up and to enjoy a wonderful catered breakfast. From the fabulous breakfast to the beverages to the musicians and staff walking around serving everyone, it is an event not to be missed.

This year was no exception. The weather threatened, but held off for as long as I was there. Many of our members flew in for the event and left before the weather could turn on them. Make it a point to attend the next one.

Major Fly-In and Events Happening

The end of July and Beginning of August is the time of year for the Big Three Fly-In's—Eaa's Airventure, PRA's Annual Convention and NCLF's Annual Picnic!

Ok, maybe the last one is a bit of a stretch including it in with the other two, but it is looked forward to by the membership as much as the other international events, and it's a lot closer.

This year at Oshkosh, they are helping Cub celebrate it's 75th anniversary. Pictures on the web have an entire field of Cubs lined up—all yellow and pretty. Plenty of other aircraft show up as well. If you have not taken the opportunity to go to Airventure, it is something to add to your "Bucket List". I last visited the event in 2006 and I can still remember it like it was yesterday. The Fly-in is always held at the end of July.

PRA's annual convention is always the week after EAA's. Mentone, IN is the place to be to see rotorcraft of all shapes and sizes. Last year featured a newer manufacture showing off some beautiful gyros both tandem and side-by-side. I have got to get up in one of those this year.

Both events span multiple days and camping is available as well. They have seminars, static and flying displays, as well as food and drink. Don't forget the souvenirs to help you remember how great of a time you had.

Our picnic may not have the same flash and exposure as the other two, but we will have static and flying displays, and food and drink. You can pick up a hat or tee shirt as well. You can hang out with some of the friendliest aviators in Northeast Ohio and see what our group is flying. Check out the activity listing in the newsletter for all the details.

If you can't make any of these three events, there is still time to get out and visit an airfield or two before Old Man Winter makes his return.
